Democratic Convention Is Still Deadlocked; Are Voting With No Chance For Break After The 23rd Ballot Has Been Cast

BIG PARADE OPENS FIREMEN'S BAZAAR

Estimated That There Are Fully 1500 In the Line of March—Parade Is Witnessed By the Citizenry of the Community

LINE OF THE BIG PARADE

Fire Departments of the Community, Council, American Legion, Two Bands, Boy Scouts, Girls and Boys of the Turners and Floats

With more than 1500 in line, the Firemen's Bazaar was opened in a blaze of glory last night, in one of the largest and most successful parades that has traversed the business section of CharleROI. Forming in Washington avenue, the parade marched from Second street to Tenth in Fallowfield avenue and up McKean to Second between crowds of enthusiastic people, hundreds of whom came to CharleROI last night from many surrounding towns to help celebrate the great affair. Firester Roberts, chairman, marshaled the parade.

In the line were the members of CharleROI police department and they were followed by the members of the vicinity fire departments and their trucks. Monessen led the visitors line and as usual make a very striking appearance in their white suits along with their large white truck. Then came the departments of Brownsville, West Brownsville, Fayette City, North CharleROI, Fredericktown, West Newton, Belle Vernon, North Belle Vernon, Greensburg, Donora and Bentleyville. The North CharleROI department turned out strong lineup and their new fire truck. Every department was largely represented, Monessen and Fredericktown being accompanied by their bands and Belle Vernon by their drum corps.

The local firemen's drum corp made its initial appearance in CharleROI last evening and did credible work. The CharleROI Slovak band was also in the lineup and were generous with their music.

Others in line were the members of the American Legion, CharleROI Post No. 22, the girls C. C. K. and the Boy Scout troops of CharleROI and North CharleROI accompanied by their scoutmasters.

An unusual feature of the parade was the presence of a large number of floats, among which were those of the Dames of Malta, Majestic theatre, Clark & Bratten, Porter's, Rosenberg, and Kirk and Clark.

The last in line was the fine display of 12 trucks and five cars of the

LORAIN IS NOT UNDER MARTIAL LAW

Lorain, O., July 1—Lorain is not under martial law, according to Gov. Vic Donahey, for the local government is still functioning, but has a bigger job than it can handle alone and the troops are helping out.

Nine tenths of the business district of Lorain will have to be rebuilt, engineers say. Nearly all of the buildings left standing were so badly wrecked by the tornado, they will have to be torn down.

GRANGE MEETS JULY FOURTH

Fallowfield Grange No. 1382 will meet Friday evening, July 4, at 8 o'clock. The following program will be given:

Song—"The Star Spangled Banner."

"The Fourth of July, What it Means to Us and How to Observe it," Lillian Colvin.

Song—"Columbia the Gem of the Ocean."

Impromptu class—Esther Sprows. Music feature—Nellie Spahr, Iva Spahr, Dora Spahr and Belva Spahr. Roll Call—Answered with a quotation.

Song—No 125 Grange Melodies.

His People Rejoiced To Learn That R. J. Coulter Is Living

Rickie McKunkin Dairy company, CharleROI Branch, and the eight trucks and two cars of the Calistria Ice Cream Plant.

At the conclusion of the parade the hundreds of visitors and residents swarmed to the corner of McKean avenue and Fifth street and there attended one of the most successful openings of the Firemen's Bazaar ever presented in CharleROI. The large number of booths, beautifully decorated were well patronized. One of the features of the Bazaar was the acrobatic act of Sully, Rodgers and Sully, these clever performers coming to CharleROI direct from New York City. Their act was highly pleasing and they will perform every evening of this week.

The firemen have many things in store for the public this week, and according to every indication, will be one of the most entertaining and successful weeks of the year.

Field Meeting On Saturday At 1:30 O'clock

W. D. Zinn of Philippi, W. Va. one of the widely known farm specialists and writers on agriculture in the tri-state district and J. W. White in charge of soil experiments at Pennsylvania State college, will be the speakers at the annual inspection and field meeting at the experimental station at Pennsylvania State college, near the Washington County Agricultural Extension association, on Saturday afternoon of this week at 1:30 o'clock.

Experiments at the station, adjoining the Country club are conducted by Pennsylvania State college for the benefit of the farmers of that section. Results as cured by using various soil treatments are shown and have become particularly valuable through the fact that the experiments at the station have been conducted for a number of years.

Field B, which is in permanent pasture and Field C, now in clover, are showing some excellent results this year. The grass on these will be cut and weighed in shock at the time of the meeting. Field A, which is in wheat, presents some excellent comparisons in the various applications of fertilizer which are of real value to the farmers of this county.

Robert J. Coulter sent word to his father, brothers and sisters that he was safe at Lorain, O.; that the report of his death was an error, some man of the same name was the unfortunate. The general rejoicing felt by those near and dear to the gentleman can be better imagined than described.

The Mail joins Robert J. Coulter and his family in congratulations that he was not among the killed—that he is in the land of the living—and in good health.

MORE THIEVING IN BOROUGH

Two residences were entered early this morning by burglars, the quest of the thieves being successful in the one instance and barren of results in the other. Harry Hurst and family, who reside at 130 Fallowfield avenue, frightened the thieves away and they secured naught. Entrance was made by removing a screen from the rear window. The time of the attempted robbery was 1:45 o'clock.

At the residence of Harry Hoist, 819 Washington avenue, this house was entered at 4:20 o'clock this morning. The burglars got $19 in cash and a ladies' gold wrist watch. The police were notified at 5:30 o'clock this morning. Entrance was made in the same manner as at the Hurst residence by the removal of a screen at rear; afterwards the burglars made entrance through the bathroom window on the second floor.

Water Notes

One car load of extra fancy large size watermelons will be sold on the car at the Pennsylvania Railroad station, at the corner of McKean and Washington streets.

M'ADOO AND SMITH STILL FAVORITES

Madison Square Garden, N. Y., July 1.—An all-day session of constant balloting before the maximum strength of William G. McAdoo and Governor Al Smith, will be reached, thus convincing the Democratic convention that it is deadlocked in opening the ways for "breaks" was in prospect today at the 16th, 17th and 18th ballot had completed minus a nomination.

With changes here and there, McAdoo polled 478 on the first ballot of the seventh day of the convention. Smith had 305 1-2. McAdoo's forces were striking fast and his manager had enough votes left in the hole to enable him to show a majority before the day is over, according to their claim. The aim of Smith's manager is to show a one-third vote, thus convincing McAdoo that they have him blocked.

Two more favored sons went by the board on the first ballot today, when New Hampshire dropped Governor Brown for whom they voted through-out yesterday and gave Smith 4, McAdoo 3, and Walsh 1. Mississippi left Pat Harrison and switched its 20 votes to Robinson or Arkansas, and that is not the destination of Mississippi. It is understood that Arkansas will switch to McAdoo from Robinson when McAdoo managers need those votes.

When balloting started today the galleries were not half filled. The late night session kept the galleries away from home until morning hours, and the crowd today straggled in slowly. The word was spread around the hall that something exciting was expected today and the crowd showed little pep in responding to changes in vote as they were announced.

Total votes in the 16th ballot, 1098. Smith 1054, McAdoo 478, Cox 60, J. W. Davis, 63, Glass 25, Ralston, 31, Robinson, 46, Underwood, 41, Walsh 1, Bryan 11, Ritchie, 17, Governor Davis 11, Salisbury 6, Brown 1, Copeland 2.

Smith picked up 5 votes in Connecticut and 2 in Michigan on the 17th ballot today after those delegations had dropped their candidates. McAdoo for the first time showed a loss, dropping from 478 to 471 1/2 in the 17th. At the close of the ballot, his manager was scurrying about the floor and prospects were to fish out additional scattered votes on the 18th ballot to make up the difference.

Total votes of the 17th ballot: Al Smith 312 1/2, McAdoo 471 1/2, Cox 60, J. W. Davis, 64, Glass 44, Ralston 30, Robinson 28, Underwood 42, Walsh 1, Bryan 11, Ritchie 17, Governor Davis 10, Copeland 2, and Salisbury 6. (Continued on page 4.)

COLEMAN (LAW) REGISTRY CO.

Old Age Help Can Now Be Secured

The newly appointed Washington County Old Age Assistance Board held its first meeting yesterday in the county commissioners' office. The county board is named by the commissioners, and Washington county's first board is composed of Dr. J. K. Smith, CharleROI, chairman; Miss Jeannette Workman, Canonsburg, secretary, and T. F. Burte, of Washington.

The Pennsylvania Old Age Assistance Commission is authorized under a state law of 1923. James H. Maurer, of Reading, is its chairman. A. Epstein, of Harrisburg, is its executive secretary. Mr. Epstein met with county board yesterday. Of 67 counties of the state, 43 have already been organized.

The commission wishes to announce that it is ready to receive applications from all persons who can qualify as entitled to aid from the commission under the law governing the operations of the fund. The commission would like to have a prompt response, as it wishes to have as complete information as possible in the matter, on which to base its estimate of an appropriation to be asked of the next session of the legislature.

On the other hand, the commission is anxious not to encourage the hope of any prompt or considerable response from such application. While the only paid employees are the executive secretary and a stenographer, and while every effort is made toward economy in the conduct of the work of the commission, yet it is clear that little is available in the way of direct assistance, as the appropriation made by the last legislature toward the new work of this commission was only $25,000.

Persons desiring blanks on which to make application may write the secretary, Miss Workman, in care of the court house, or may apply directly to the commissioners' office.

Girl Driving Car Collides With Telegraph Pole On Speers Road With Fearful Results

John A. Smith, aged 82 years, was instantly killed this afternoon at 2 o'clock when the Oakland touring car in which he was riding collided with a telephone pole on the road between Speers and CharleROI, and the flying glass of the windshield severed his jugular vein.

The aged man was driving to Allenport with his niece, Miss Violet Abel, aged 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Stahl of North CharleROI, at the wheel, where they were planning to spend the afternoon in working in a garden. The car while enroute got in a ditch before the girl could pull it back on to the road, the crash occurred, smashing the windshield, the top and the fenders.

MEETING OF THE DAUGHTERS IN THE LYCEUM

The Monongahela Valley District meeting of the Catholic Daughters of America, held Sunday afternoon beginning at 3 o'clock in the Lyceum of St. Jerome's Catholic church, proved to be a successful and interesting session, with large delegations present from the courts of Donora, Monongahela, Monessen, McKeesport and Pittsburgh. The distinct feature of the meeting was the address given by Miss Francis Maher of Kane, Pa., State Regent and National Vice Regent. Miss Elizabeth McGetigan, District Deputy of McKeesport, also honored the assemblage with a short talk. Other talks of interest were given by Mrs. Elizabeth Connelly, Regent of Donora Court, Mrs. Mary Cushing, Regent of Monessen Court, Mrs. Margaret Ebbenz, Regent of South Hills Court, Pittsburgh, and Mrs. Margaret O'Brien, local Regent.

Following the meeting, an entertaining program was carried out, and during this time luncheon was served by the local members. Miss Mayme Fallon of Monessen entertained with a number of vocal solos, Miss Helzsauer, also of Monessen, with several readings, and Miss Gamble of Monongahela, pleased the audience with vocal solos.

The evidence showed that the shooting of William E. Patmon at Midland, in Chartiers township, on June 14, was wilful. It appears that Settles and Patmon became engaged in an argument over a strike in the mines. It became very heated and finally the men engaged in a fight. They were parted by George Oliver and each man got to his feet.

It was testified by witnesses that Settles walked over to his coat, picked it up, drew a revolver from the pocket and shot Patmon. The dead man was aged 53 years, and was single.

In the Case of Freeman, a Witness Claims that Freeman Attacked Woman, Who Is Being Held For Murder For Stabbing Him With Knife

Coroner William Greenlee held a double inquest in the court house at Washington yesterday, inquiring into two homicides occurring the same day, June 14, last, the juries holding Susie Jackson Brown Freeman, aged 40, colored for the fatal stabbing of Louis Freeman at Arden mines and John Settles for the shooting of Gaines Patmon at Midland, on the charge of murder. Both have been arrested and are held in the county jail.

In the killing of Louis Freeman, who died in the Washington hospital from knife wounds inflicted at Arden mines early in the morning of June 14, the evidence showed that Susie Freeman had acted in self defense. She had been living with this man at Arden. The night before she had been absent and the next morning Freeman went to the house of George Shivers, also colored, where he found her.

According to the testimony of Shivers, who was a witness, Freeman attacked her, stabbing her with a fork, and a fight followed. During the struggle, it is alleged that the woman drew a knife from a pocket in her skirt and stabbed Freeman several times. He was rushed to the Washington hospital, where an operation was performed in an effort to save his life, but he died shortly afterward. The woman escaped but was captured two days later while on her way back to Arden.

The evidence showed that the shooting of William E. Patmon at Midland, in Chartiers township, on June 14, was wilful. It appears that Settles and Patmon became engaged in an argument over a strike in the mines. It became very heated and finally the men engaged in a fight. They were parted by George Oliver and each man got to his feet.

CAUGHT UNDER AUTO; KILLED

At an early hour yesterday morning, Frederick D. Cole, colored, of South Brownsville, a miner employed at Lincoln Hill, was killed when his automobile plunged over an embankment on the National highway, near the Keystone camping grounds, eight miles east of the county seat. Cole was pinned under his machine.

It is not known how the fatal accident occurred—probably never will be. Cole was dead when found shortly after 6 o'clock yesterday morning by Miss Saunders, daughter of Daniel Saunders, in front of whose home the accident occurred. The automobile, a Dodge coupe, was resting on the neck of the dead man, and it is opined that he was strangled to death.

The time of the accident is also not known, but it was at an early hour. Cole had evidently left Brownsville early in order to reach Lincoln Hill in time for work yesterday. The tracks showed that he had driven off the road. The ground was soft and he evidently was not able to get the machine back to the highway before it went over the bank. There was a heavy fog yesterday morning, and this may have been an inducing cause.

UNCLE SAM'S FIGHT DELAYED UNTIL OCTOBER

Washington, July 1.—The federal government's fight to regain possession of the naval oil reserves is now at a standstill, until October.

Trial of Albert B. Fall, Harry F. Sinclair, E. L. Doheny, and his son, indicted for conspiracy to defraud the government, will not begin here before then.

Suits instituted in Wyoming and California for cancellation of the leases likewise will not be heard until October.

All four defendants indicted yesterday must appear here next week to plead and to post $5,000 bond each. Fall and the Dohenys for conspiracy and bribery, and Sinclair for conspiracy.

Usual legal maneuvers, such as the filing of demurrers and motions to dismiss are expected to be made and these may be ruled on during the summer by the one justice sitting in court here.

The indictments were regarded here as a great victory for special government counsel Allee Pomerene and Owen Roberts, who have diligently conducted the government's case before the grand jury for nearly two months.

Frank J. Hogan, counsel for Doheny here, likewise declared his clients were pleased with the result.

"The oil cases are now transferred from the forum of partisan politics to the courts of justice. We welcome the change," he said.

DEATH TAKES AGED FARMER

Levi Myers, aged 93 years, believed to be the oldest resident of Somerset township, died at his home near Kammerer yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock. While he had enjoyed good health up to the time of his death it was not unexpected because of his advanced years.

A son of the late Jacob and Mary Swickard Myers he was born September 8, 1830, on the farm on which he died. He was the last of a family of 11 children. He leaves a niece, Mary Myers, at home. Other nephews and nieces live in Washington county. He was a farmer all his life and was never married.

Funeral services will be held at the late home Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Interment will be in the old Lutheran cemetery near Kammerer.

McAdoo 439, Smith 307½, Davis 125,
Walsh 8.

Mrs. Miller of Pittsburgh received half a vote for the nomination of President of the United States.

Twenty-second ballot: McAdoo 438½, Smith 307½, Davis 123½. This shows that McAdoo and Smith are being threatened by a possible dark horse in Davis.

Madison Square Garden, N. Y., July 1.—William Gibbs McAdoo and Gov. Al Smith resumed maneuvers today in the great "freeze out" now being perpetrated on the Democratic convention.

With the convention still tightly locked at midnight after fifteen ballots which proved only that both sides were in deadly earnest about definitely stopping the other, today's balloting got under way with the general situation something like this:

1—McAdoo now has considerably more than a third of the convention apparently so tied that he can absolutely prevent the nomination of Smith. This number is said to be around 366 votes.

2—Smith is trying to establish a dichard amounting to one-third of the convention so that he can assuredly stop McAdoo. Smith's total during today's balloting is expected to reach 350—beyond which it is doubtful how far he can climb.

3—John W. Davis of West Virginia, who closed the first day and night of balloting in third place is in an excellent strategic position. He has many second choice pledges among the delegates and his popularity, generally is shown by the fact that outside his own state, his votes yesterday were scattered through nearly a dozen states.

There are two things that may have a very important effect now on the convention result, and both of them favor the opposition of McAdoo.

First numerous McAdoo delegates from the western states, particularly, are leaving the city tonight or tomorrow, and in leaving are compelled to leave their proxies in hands not so eager to name McAdoo. While these proxies can be tied up for a time by McAdoo's friends, it is obvious they can't be held to him forever. Many of his votes are in danger through this route.

The second factor likely to influence the convention is the combined psychological effect of the inevitable breaking of the unit rule in some state, coupled with the gallery demonstrations for Smith. Several states now voting solidly for McAdoo under the unit rule have many delegates for other candidates in their lineup. Once they abandon the unit rule, even the slightest turn to Smith will bring down a din from the galleries where the god of Smith reigns supreme.

Anyone who has sat through a week of this quadriennial hippodrome knows how the delegate basks in the smile of the cheering galleries, how he dotes on standing on his chair and under the eyes of thousands utter something—anything that will start a cheer from those 12,000 throats. For the moment that delegate is the proudest man in the world. It shows on his face. He looks probably very much like the goose did who laid that first golden egg the world has been talking about ever since.

LORAIN BURIES

ITS DEAD TODAY

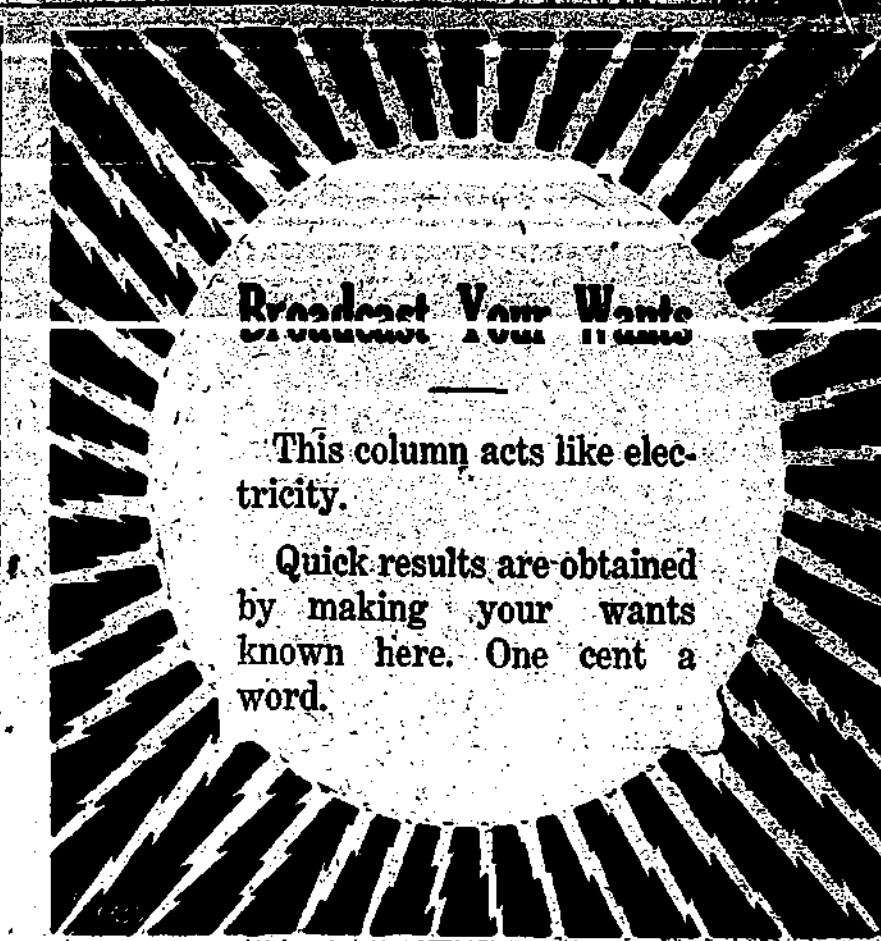

Lorain, O., July 1.—Lorain buried its dead privately today, the 74 known victims of the devastating storm of Saturday evening, while downtown in the ruined business section of the city, khaki clad troops moved about.

Where the State theater had stood, a light steam shovel puffed as it scooped at the debris where more bodies may be found.

The smell of hot soup came from the rolling army kitchens, while the Salvation Army maintaines and Red Cross dressing stations still found something to do.

Marauding and rioting broke out today in what is known as the Colorado avenue section of the city.

The military authorities, who feared serious fighting between inhabitants of the section and persons who were plundering the wrecked houses dispatched one company of the 145th Infantry to the scene.

RUN-DOWN
WEAK, NERVOUS

Benefited by First Bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Lancaster, Pa.—"After I was married I became terribly run-down and was weak and nervous. My sister-in-law told me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. My husband got me a bottle at once, and it did me so much good that I began to feel well and strong again and was able to do my housework up to the time my baby was born—a nice fat little girl in the best of health. I surely am recommending the Vegetable Compound to my friends and family as a testimonial."

—Mrs. FRANK E. GARAN, 633 Locust Street, Lancaster, Pa.

Women should heed such symptoms as pains, headache, nervousness, a run-down condition and irregularity, as they indicate some form of female trouble.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a dependable medicine for all these troubles. For sale by druggists everywhere.
